

The Oak - Grows In Here

Tom: E
 I always wanted to climb the highest tree
 To see what was around me
 And feel the wind touching my skin
 I opened my eyes hoping to be released

Since I was a child
 The nature inspires me to feel alive
 Oh God thank you feels sublime

How can I explain in words
 Something that grows in here
 And pushes me towards
 Every time I feel the world

In this dream
 I'm with open arms feeling the wind
 Feeling the green grass underneath my feet
 I stare to a power pole, and it stares at me

How can I explain in words
 Something that grows in here
 And pushes me towards
 Every time I feel the world

And sometimes it consumes me
 Like I was being fulfilled by it
 Something that grows in here
 Freeing me from all my sins
 Oh feeling, keep on shining Oh, in my heart

How can I explain in words
 Something that grows in here
 And pushes me towards
 Every time I feel the world

Something that grows in here
 Pushes me towards
 Something that grows
