

The Pierces - You'll Be Mine

Tom: F

(com acordes na forma de C )

Capo: 5ª casa

Intro: 4x: F Am

We could bring a blanket for the grass
 Cover up your eyes so you don't see
 If you let me go I'm running fast
 One two three count one two three
 We could watch the black birds cross the skies
 We could count the leaves left on the trees
 We could count the teardrops in our eyes
 One two three yeah one two three
 One two three yeah one two three
 Now you know now you know
 How I feel and I won't back down
 Prick your finger on a spinning wheel
 But dont make a sound
 Drop of blood and now you're taken
 For all time
 With a kiss you will awaken

And you'll be mine, you'll be mine, you'll be mine

( Am Em F G )

I could always stay and work it out
 Wondering if you still wanted me
 But there are so many things to doubt
 One two three count one two three
 Think that for a moment you were mine
 I know that you saw what we could be
 But then you went and changed your mind
 One two three yeah one two three
 One two three yeah one two three
 Now you know now you know
 How I feel and I won't back down
 Prick your finger on a spinning wheel
 But dont make a sound
 Drop of blood and now you're taken
 For all time
 With a kiss you will awaken
 And you'll be mine, you'll be mine, you'll be mine, you'll be mine, you'll be mine
