It Will Be Fine
                                                                 And I Just Don?t Care, And I Just Don?t Care
I Know Im Right
                                                                           Dadd9
Its Not Too Late
                                                                 And You?re Far Away From My Own Way
To Save Your Life
                                                                                             Dadd9
 Dadd9
                                                                 And Today, Today, There?s No Rain Falling Down
I Need To Wait
                                                                                     Dadd9

I Move Too Fast
Bring Your Lies
I Know You?ll Last
                                                                 The Time You Spent
                                                                 To Build Your Dreams
And Around I?ll See Your Eyes
                                                                 The Waters Gone
                                                                 The Sun Deceased
