

The Pretty Reckless - Who You Selling For

Tom: C

2x D G D G

In the middle of a dream

On the darkest night

Woke up in a scream

Thought I'd lost my sight

Who you selling for tonight?

Pack my bags, time to fly

Don't be sad

I'm not that high

Who you selling for tonight?

Who you selling for tonight?

Who you selling for tonight?

Who you selling for?

Tonight it's alright

I can see the tunnel at the end of these lights

And when Travis called I didn't even answer

John was a walrus but he ain't no dancer like Paul

Know it all

And when Roger showed me I was building a wall

I've been waiting a long time

Waiting a long time

Waiting a long time

Waiting for it to fall

Who you selling for tonight?

Who you selling for tonight?

In the middle of a dream

On the darkest night

Or so it seems

But I think I'm right

Acordes
