The Pretty Reckless - Who You Selling For

Tom: C

```
2x D G D G
                   D
In the middle of a dream
G
                D
 On the darkest night
G
                D
 Woke up in a scream
                    D
                              G
G
 Thought I'd lost my sight
C D
                              G
 Who you selling for tonight?
D G D
Pack my bags, time to fly
           D
G
 Don't be sad
              D
                       G
G
 I'm not that high
       С
                      D
                                G
 Who you selling for tonight?
                                G
          C
                      D
 Who you selling for tonight?
           С
                      D
                                G
 Who you selling for tonight?
       C
 Who you selling for?
  D
             G
Tonight it's alright
```

Acordes

D G I can see the tunnel at the end of these lights D G And when Travis called I didn't even answer D G D John was a walrus but he ain't no dancer like Paul G Know it all G D And when Roger showed me I was building a wall D I've been waiting a long time G Waiting a long time Waiting a long time G Waiting for it to fall С D G Who you selling for tonight? D C D G Who you selling for tonight? G D In the middle of a dream G D On the darkest night G D Or so it seems D G D G But I think I'm right