

The Red Clay Strays - Moment Of Truth

tom:
 Why do I do all of these things I shouldn't do?
 Why do I stumble when I'm somewhere close to you?
 If I can't be righteous
 If I can't see temptation through
 I will face my judgement in the moment of truth
 (Bm Gb A E)
 I been out in the valley
 And I been running the roads
 I been biding my time, doin' all the things in this life
 That you should never, never, never, never, know, know, know
 I know all this folly
 Is gonna catch up with me
 I been numbing my wits, giving out Judas' kiss
 Out in the blistering cold
 Why do I do all of these things I shouldn't do?
 Why do I stumble when I'm somewhere close to you?

If I can't be righteous
 If I can't see temptation through
 I will face my judgement in the moment of truth
 I have not been patient
 I have not been kind
 I been serving my flesh to those who deserve my best
 But only tasted my crime
 And if I can't be righteous
 If I can't see temptation through
 I will face my judgement in the moment of truth
 Why do I do all of these things I shouldn't do?
 Why do I stumble when I'm somewhere close to you?
 If I can't be righteous
 If I can't see temptation through
 I will face my judgement in the moooooo
