

The Red Quarks - Homeless

tom:

Am

Intro: Am Am
On the table are the most expensive and rare delights in the world

Am Am
The guests walk and we realize that they transgress and gorge themselves
F Dm E
After all, they are kings, princes and politicians

Am Am
The night is winding down and there's still wine for everyone

Am Am
The richest are stupefied by the charm of the girls in black
F Dm E
In a lunatic back-and-forth the servants rush to attend the guests

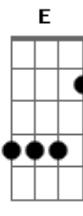

But outside the party doesn't come

[Primeira Parte]

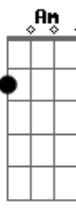

Am
Homeless are dying around the cold fire on sidewalks
Am
Sharing stale bread, they are trying to survive alone
Dm
See the wealthy people afraid to get close these humble souls
Am
And teaching their children that they are dirty and dangerous
G
But life is sneaky and maybe one day your mirror will show you
E
Another homeless in the world

[Segunda Parte]

Am

Toothless homeless people snore in the sun lying on the streets

Am

Stupefied by drugs they beg for clothes, change, food and love

Dm

In the midst of them a child smile at his fantasies

Am

We wake up in the hope that the gold will sweep away this scene

G

But what we see is a persecution of those who are really trying

To help the homeless in their hell
