

The RoadRunners - Solitary Man

tom:
Eb (forma dos acordes no tom de D)
Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb Eb
Capo: 2ª casa
Intro: Am C

Am C Am
There's a solitary man who came from west of kentucky
Am C Am
And he don't mind if he has to stay alone in his truck
Em F Am
He only sees the horizon with that blood red sun
Am C Am
He always worked hard and made his own luck
Am C Am
Making happen all he wanted, on every hour
Em F Am
What could stop him, made his voice louder
(Am C Am)

Am C Am
That man can be so scary and can be strong
Am C Am
But his heart is golden and never could be corrupted
Em F Am
He knows time can't change what you have done
F G Am

He knows time can't change what you have done

F G C C- Am G-
This man can stand all the crows along his way
F G Am
He needs to keep his thoughts, that makes him stay
F G C C-
I think he knows, that throwing what is bad out can not stop
his
Am G-Pain
F G C
And that I've learned from this solitary man

F G C C- Am G-
This man can stand all the crows along his way
F G Am
He needs to keep his thoughts, that makes him stay
F G C C-
I think he knows, that throwing what is bad out can not stop
his
Am G-Pain

F G C
And that I've learned from this solitary man
F G Am
And that I've learned from this solitary man
F G C
And that I've learned from this solitary man

Acordes

