The RoadRunners - Solitary Man

tom: Eb (forma dos acordes no tom de D) Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb Eb Capostraste na 2ª casa Intro: Am C С Δm Am There's a solitary man who came from west of kentuky Am C And he don't mind if he has to stay alone in his truck Em F Am He only sees the horizon with that blood red sun Am С Am He always worked hard and made his own luck Am С Am Making happen all he wanted, on every hour F Em Am What could stop him, made his voice louder

(Am C Am)

 Am
 C
 Am

 That man can be so scary and can be strong
 Am

 Am
 C
 Am

 But his heart is golden and never could be corrupted
 Em
 F
 Am

 He knows time can't change what you have done
 F
 G
 Am

Acordes

He knows time can't change what you have done

C C- Am G-F G This man can stand all the crows along his way G Am He needs to keep his thoughts, that makes him stay C -F G C I think he knows, that throwing what is bad out can not stop his Am G-Pain G С F.

And that I've learned from this solitary man

 F
 G
 C C- Am G

 This man can stand all the crows along his way
 F

 G
 Am

 He needs to keep his thoughts, that makes him stay

 F
 G
 C

 I think he knows, that throwing what is bad out can not stop his

 Am
 G

 Pain

 $\begin{array}{cccc} F & & G & C \\ \mbox{And that I've learned from this solitary man} \\ F & & G & Am \\ \mbox{And that I've learned from this solitary man} \\ F & & G & C \\ \mbox{And that I've learned from this solitary man} \end{array}$