VERSE 1:
        E
      You're the kind of person you meet
      At certain dismal dull affairs.
                A
      Center of a crowd, talking much too loud
              E
      Running up and down the stairs.
             A
      Well it seems to me that you have seen
      Too much in too few years.
      And though you've tried you just can't hide
      Your eyes are edged with tears.

CHORUS:
                  B     E  E  E ;  B  E  E  E
      You better stop,

              E
      Here comes your nine-teenth nervous breakdown.

VERSE 2:
      When you were a child you were treated kind
      But you were never brought up right.
      You were always spoiled with a thousand toys
      But still you cried all night.
      Your mother who neglected you
      Owes a million dollar tax.
      And your father's still perfecting ways
      Of making ceiling wax.

CHORUS:

BREAK:
      B                        E
      Oh, who's to blame, that girl's just insane.
      Well nothing I do don't seem to work,
            B
      It only seems to make matters worse.
```

```
      Oh please.

VERSE 3:
      You were still in school when you had that fool
      Who really messed your mind.
      And after that you turned your back
      On treating people kind.
      On our first trip I tried so hard
      To rearrange your mind.
      But after a while I realized
      You were disarranging mine.
