

The Rolling Stones - Indian Girl

Tom: C

(intro 2x) C F

(verse)

C little indian girl, where is your mama? F

C little indian girl, where is your papa? F

C he's fighting in the war in the streets of masaya F

G all the children were dead F

G except for the girl who said F

C "please mister gringo, please find my father" F

G lesson number one F G better learn while you're young F

C life just goes on and on getting harder and harder F

C little indian girl, from nueva, granada C F

(verse)

C ma says there's no food, there's nothing left in the larder F

C last piece of meat was eaten by the soldiers that raped her F

G lesson number one F G that you learn when you're young F

C life just goes on and on getting harder and harder F

C life just goes on and on getting harder and harder F

C little indian girls from nueva, granada F

C little indian girls from nueva, granada F

G yes, i saw them today F

G it's a sight i would say F

C they're shooting down planes

C with their m-16 and with laughter F

(verse)

(spoken)

C mr. gringo, my father he ain't no che guevara F

C and he's fighting a war on the streets of masaya F

C little indian girl where is your father? F

C indian girl where is your momma? F

C they're fighting for mr. castro in the streets of angola F

C la la la la la la F C

Acordes

