

The Runarounds - Minivan

```
Will we stay together now?
                 tom:
                G
                       В7
                                                                   Are we ever getting out?
                                                    Am
 \ensuremath{\mathsf{Im}} out of visions getting bags under \ensuremath{\mathsf{my}} eyes
                                                                    [Ponte]
                         Em Am
  Dodging my future like it is my 9 to 5
                                                                               Fm
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                    Same old sky
                                                                    Am
                                                                    Two street lights
Smoking weed in a mininvan
                                                                               Em
                                                                   Im Doing fine (im doing fine)
                Am
Always under the upper end
                                                                    Am D7
                                                                   Life oh life (im not allright)
              B7
 Im gonna snap like a rubber band
Em Am
So ill ask again
                                                                    [Pré-Refrão]
[Refrão]
                                                                   Come on get in, we're leaving now forget your doubts
               В7
                                                                    Come on get in, we're leaving now forget your doubts
 Will we survive North Carolina?
                                                                    Come on get in, we're leaving now forget your doubts
Or are we falling into the eye
                                                                     Come on get in we're leaving now, we're leaving now
                Am
Will we stay together now?
                                                                   We'll make it out
                  \mathsf{Cm}
Are we ever getting out?
                                                                    [Refrão]
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                                     В7
                                                                   Will we survive North Carolina?
No motivation watch me sink into my bed
             B7
                                                                    Or are we falling into the eye
For im not Complessing im just crawling through some shit
                                                                   Will we stay together now?
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                   Are we ever getting out?
Smoking weed in a mininvan
                                                                    [Final]
                Am
   Always under the upper end
          B7
                                                                    Smoking weed in a mininvan
 Im gonna snap like a rubber band
                                                                   Always under the upper end
        Am
 So ill ask again
                                                                     Im gonna snap like a rubber band
[Refrão]
                                                                     So ill ask again
               В7
                                                                                  Am
 Will we survive North Carolina?
                                                                   Will we stay together now?
Or are we falling into the eye
                                                                   Are we ever getting out?
Acordes
                                                                                            D7
                          ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                   ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                  ukulele-chords.com
                                         ukulele-chords.com
```