

The Self-Escape - Kill For You

tom:

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

For those long car rides

And those morning nights

Breathing smoke on the streets

Making love on the backseat to some Lana

But, you know, time goes by

And the needles dry

Breaking glass ain't a thing

You should stop

For a moment

I'm telling this to you

?Cause I just know I need to

And there's no other way

But don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Please, will you listen now?

Can't you see you're down?

All these slaps on my face will not stop tragedies

I tried to tell you

It was for your own good

But you chose your own way

But don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Kill for you

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

Don't you get that I'd kill for you?

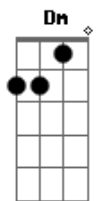

[Solo]

You know I would've killed for you

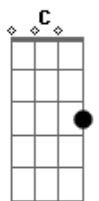

You know I would've killed for you

You know I would've killed
