

The Strokes - Ize Of The World

```
Tom: E
                                                                                                                                                                                                             Citizens to terrorize,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Abm
         Db E Eb
                                                                                                                                                                                                             Generations to desensiti-.
A C Db
Db E Eb
A C Db
                                                                                                                                                                                                              Your dreams are sweet and obsessed and you're overworked.
Db E Eb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Dbm Gbm Abm E
                                                                                                                                                                                                              You're overtaken by feelings of being overlooked.
A C Db
Db E Eb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Dbm Gbm Abm E
A C Db
                                                                                                                                                                                                             How disappointed would D.I.D.I.P.P. be
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Dbm Gbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                              To see such power in our hands all wasted on greed?
                                Dbm
                                                                           Gbm
                                                                                                         Abm
I think I know what you mean but watch what you say % \left\{ 1\right\} =\left\{ 1\right\}
                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Dbm Gbm Abm E
                                                                                                                                                                                                              I am a prisoner to instincts or do my thoughts
                                             Dbm Gbm Abm
 'Cause they'll be trying to knock you down in some way.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Dbm Gbm Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                              Just live as free and detached as boats to the dock?
                                      Dbm Gbm Abm E
Sometimes it feels like the world is falling asleep.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       E Dbm B
                                Dbm Gbm Abm E
                                                                                                                                                                                                              Just like when music was born and detached from your heart.
How do you wake someone up from inside a dream?
                                                                                                                                                                                                              E Dbm B E Gbm
                                       Dbm
                                                                                   Gbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                              Is your free time to free minds or for falling apart?
Your mind would wander and search for its place in the night.

Dbm Gbm Abm E

Your body followed this feeling like following light.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                             Night after night
                                     E Dbm B
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Е
Once that your music was born it followed you 'round
                                                                                                                                                                                                              You turn out the light.
                                  E Dbm B E
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Abm
And then it gave your activities meaning and let you be loud.
                                                                                                                                                                                                              You don't fall asleep right away.
                                                                                                                                                                                                              "Are we... are we done?"
 You're sad but you smile.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    E Abm
                        E Gbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                              A desk to organize,
It's not in your eyes.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                             A product to advertize,
                       Abm
Your eyeballs don't change.
                                                                                                                                                                                                             A market to monopolize,
It's the muscles around your eyes.
                                                                                                                                                                                                             Movie stars to idolize,
An egg to fertilize,
                                                                                                                                                                                                              Leaders to scandalize,
A pulse to stabilize,
                                                                                                                                                                                                              Enemies to neutralize,
                                                                    Ahm
                                              F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              F
A body to deodorize,
                                                                                                                                                                                                              No time to apologize,
A life to scrutinize,
                                                                                                                                                                                                              Fury to tranquilize,
                                              E
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Е
A child to criticize,
                                                                                                                                                                                                             Weapons to synchronize,
Young adults to modernize,
                                                                                                                                                                                                              Cities to vapori-.
```

Acordes

