

The Tallest Man on Earth - Wind And Walls

Tom: Gb In all these riots of broken sounds

(com acordes na forma de D)
Capostrate na 4ª casa
Intro: D A Em D A

D Well, 'All is well in order' is what you thought you heard A
them say
Em and so you drifted off to see what's not in yourself D A
D Light is turning slowly will it lay out on the plains?
Em No more nights of what you wrote back then,
A G D A no relief of no rain

D And so, singing songs of rivers tied to accidents within A
Em and telling people lies of lions, treasures, and kings D A
D Nothing's more revealing than the dancer and the doubt A
Em waving to forget what's never gone, always there, never right G

A In all these riots of broken sounds D A
Like the last voice you heard Em
A D A Em D A then you drowned, oh lord

D You know, this is wind and walls and weathered leaves and A tearing sails
Em and minnows in your pockets when the rapid's on trails D A
D this is not the future but I sense it's right up there
Em oh, just another hour, another pass, another day anywhere D A G

A D A

Em And you sleep on the track
A D A Em D A every night, oh lord

G And we don't know if your treasure is safe
A D Bm where will you be when they find you, son?
G And you know they're always following me
A D Bm so when I get there you trust me son, and just leave,
A A A7 I'll catch up

D This is where you're passionate of seasons and their strength A
Em and this is where you breathe and walk and know they will end D A
D Light is turning slowly to the hand upon your chest A
Em so lay it on the plains where there is time, there is love, D A
there is rest

A From all these riots of broken sounds D A
Em When you sleep on the track
A D A Em D A every night, oh lord
( G A A G A A )

G And we don't know if your treasure is safe
A D Bm where will you be when they find you, son?
G And you know they're always following me A
D I'll be the best when the silence comes.
