

The Weeknd - Gasoline

tom:

Intro: A B F A Db

[Primeira Parte]

It's 5 AM, my time again

I've soakin' up the Moon

Can't sleep

It's 5 AM, my time again

I'm calling and you know it's me

I'm pushin' myself further

I'm just tryin' to feel my heartbeat beat

I wrap my hands around your neck

You love it when I always squeeze

It's 5 AM, I'm high again

And you can see that I'm in pain

I've fallen into emptiness

I want you 'cause we're both insane

I'm staring into the abyss

I'm lookin' at myself again

I'm dozing off to REM

I'm trying not to lose my faith

[Refrão]

And I love it when you watch me sleep

You spin me 'round so I can breathe

It's only safe for you and me

I know you won't let me OD

A

And if I finally die in peace

Just wrap my body in these sheets

And pour out the gasoline?

It don't mean much to me

[Segunda Parte]

It's 5 AM, I'm nihilist

I know ther?'s nothin' after this (after this)

Obsessing over aftermaths

Apocalypse and hopelessness

The only thing I understand

Is zero sum of tenderness

Oh, baby, please, just hold me close

Make me believe there's more to live

[Ponte]

Around, around, around, around we go

In this game called life, we are not free

[Refrão Final]

And I love it when you watch me sleep

You spin me 'round so I can breathe

It's only safe for you and me

I know you won't let me OD

And if I finally die in peace

Just wrap my body in these sheets

And pour out the gasoline

It don't mean much to me

[Final] A B Gb Db
