

The White Buffalo - Joey White

Tom: E
m (com acordes na forma de Dbm )
Capostraste na 3ª casa
Intro: E B7 E B7 E B7
Joey White, well he ain't got no choices
            B7
Just like his daddy did, he joins the armed forces
       B7 E
                    B7
Gonna be a man, oh not a zero
        B7 F
For Uncle Sam, well he'll be a hero
He don't know that Uncle Sam is a cartoon and not a man
           E B7 E B7
Poor Joey White
       B7
Oh Joey White, you better bite your tongue
              B7
You don't know jack, boy
You're young, dumb and full of cum
             B7 E
Better step in line, go with the others
              B7
Gonna fight for freedom, son, your country and your brothers
Here's your boots and here's a gun
Learn when to fight, learn when to run
             E B7 E B7
Poor Joey White
Well he got two years in the sand,
                                          E B7 E B7
And it will surely change his plans for life
Joey White, well he gets his orders
                                         B7
                                                            For life

Acordes

Grab your things and we'll meet you at the border
E B7 E B7
Kill 'em all, no quarter given
        B7
Shoot on sight, boy, let God sort out the livin'
Told ya no one's keeping score
This ain't no game, well this is war
              E B7 E B7
For Joey White
Yeah, from below and from the sky
Hear drums and bullets fly
Oh a scream of battle cry
Bodies burn and brothers die
Poor Joey White
(E B7)
Joey White, well you better run faster
             B7
You can't run fast enough to avoid this grave disaster
         B7
Well in a flash blood soaks his shirt
            B7
Drops to his knees, now he's face down in the dirt
Now he's on that freedom bird
                                            E B7 E B7
Gets to leave this Hell on Earth still alive
Now his heart's filled up with lead
He got demons in his head
