

The White Buffalo - Love Song #2

Tom: C

nine hours away count the minutes pass the days I'm all wrapped up in an endless haze I'm missing you wish you could poison me with your stare heart and soul beyond repair but you sit idley unaware that i was missing you oh my darlin' will i see you again i'd rather just pretend that you're around oh my darlin' will i see you again i'd rather just pretend that you're around got drunk another fight it helps me sleep through the night well i still stare at your picture every night well i was kissin' you memories explode in thin air fireworks of times we shared cause you sit idley unaware that i was missin' you oh my darlin' will i see you again i'd rather just pretend

 pretend that you're around all the laws and the sun don't seem to play spend my days and my nights alone
 oh my darlin' will i see you again i'd rather just pretend
 around it's alarming how my thoughts of you will send me to a place i can pretend that you're around
