The White Buffalo - Pray to You Now

Tom: G

```
     G        C           D   G
How can I leave the past alone?
               C        D   G
Now that the end has come along.
C  D  G  G    A  B  C        D      C         D
I can't right all my wrongs, so I'll put 'em in songs, for now

          G        C         D   G
Say goodbye, to the memories and the fear
             C        D   G
Will you lead me upstairs to the light?
          C        D        G A B C    D
With my shadows and greys, and my evil ways
```

Refrão:

```
          G                        C  G
Well I pray to you now, I don't know how
G                         C  G A B A G
It ain't in my heart, is it too late to start?

     G        C  D   G
So long, to the body and the bones
           C  D   G
They ain't much use to me now
          C      D        G A B C    D
If my faith isn't blind will I be left behind?
```

Refrão:

```
          G                        C  G
Well I pray to you now, I don't how
G                              C  G A B D
It ain't in my heart, is it too late to start?
G                     C
What's behind the final curtain?
     D                    G
I can't be certain I'm right
G                   C
All I know is I'm really hurtin'
      D           C       D
I'm on my knees tonight
```

Refrão:

```
          G                        C  G
Well I pray to you now, I don't know how
G                              C  G A B D
It ain't in my heart, is it too late to start?
          G                             C  G
Well I pray to you now, well I don't know how
G                              C  G A B D C
It ain't in my heart, is it too late to start?
C               D    G
Is it too late to start?
```

Acordes