

The White Buffalo - Redemption #2

Tom: A

m [Intro] Am

F

I killed many men with the greatest of ease

Forgive me, forgive me, I'm down on my knees

F

I don't believe that there's a Heaven to go

But I must get this evil out of my bones and my soul

C

Wash the blood from my hands, but my mind can't get clean

B

I must flush away what I've done, what I've seen

F

Well I'll hide when I will, my lament it just grow

My wife and my children, they don't have to know

F

The fire and the fever I forever fight

I must resist to dance in the devil's delight

C

Now all I need is a damn way to cope

B

There's no soap, no hope, no antidote

C

Let the truth wash over me

C

There's only one way to be free

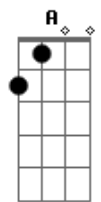

C

All I really ever need

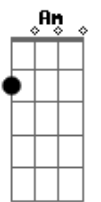

Am

Jolene
