

The Wonder Years - It Must Get Lonely

```
[Refrão]
                           tom:
                                                                                    Bm C Bm C Bm C Bm
                                                              But it must get lonely
           Afinação: D A D G B E
                                                                    Am
                                                                          G
Intro: Bm C Bm C
                                                              It must get lonely
     Bm Am G
                                                                                    Bm C Bm C Bm C Bm
                                                              But it must get lonely
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                     Am G
                                                              But it must get lonely
I'm a raw nerve in the sunlight
                                                              [Terceira Parte]
After two weeks in the dark
                                                              I'm a specter in the dim light on the flowers by the grave
If you've gotta tell me you're not using
                                                              In the Montmartre in Paris
It's probably 'cause you are
                                                              Where the crows seem to know my name
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                              And they left footprints in the snow
                                                              Along the fence on Palmer Street
I saw you there
Just a block off to see your rowhome
                                                              Cigarette butts on the headstones
On an empty street where the others have been torn \overset{\circ}{\text{down}}
                                                              That you left for me
And you're the last one standing
                                                              [Pré-Refrão]
[Refrão]
                                                              I saw you there
                  Bm C Bm C Bm C Bm Am G
                                                              Just a block off to see your rowhome
It must get lonely
                  Bm C Bm C Bm C Bm Am
It must get lonely
                                                              On an empty street where the others have been torn down
[Segunda Parte]
                                                              And you're the last one standing
                                                              [Ponte]
When the grace starts to swallow grey
                                                                                   Fm
                                                              It must get obvious enough that I'm not ever gonna change
Where the sky meets the Irish sea
Like a suit that's been to too many funerals
                                                              It must get obvious enough, I'm the one who stays
                                                                                  Em
                                                              It must get obvious enough that you're not ever gonna change
And starts fraying at the seams
I saw a bag of clementines split right open on an English
                                                              It must get obvious enough, you're the one who stays
                                                              [Refrão]
And the contrast made me feel so goddamn dizzy
                                                                                  Bm C Bm C Bm C Bm
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                              But it must get lonely
                                                                  Am G
                                                              It must get lonely

Bm C Bm C Bm C Bm
I saw you there
                                                               (It must get lonely)
Just a block off to see your rowhome
                                                                 Am G
                                                              It must get lonely
On an empty street where the others have been torn \ensuremath{\mathsf{down}}
                                                                                 Bm C Bm C Bm C Bm
                                                              (It must get lonely)
And you're the last one standing
                                                                   Am G
                                                              It must get lonely
[Ponte]
                                                                                  Bm C Bm C Bm C Bm
                                                              (It must get lonely)
It must get obvious enough that I'm not ever gonna change
                                                              It must get lonely
                   Em
It must get obvious enough, I'm the one who stays
                                                              You know, it must get lonely
```

Acordes

