The Wonder Years - The Devil In My Bloodstream

I got the same blood coursing through my veins tom: Db (forma dos acordes no tom de D) Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb Eb It'll come for me eventually [Primeira Parte] [Terceira Parte] D Bm D We wiped out all the buffalo around the turn of the last I bet I'd be a fucking coward centurv I bet I'd never have the guts for war And so it's factories and sawgrass, wheat fields and asphalt laid Cause I can't spend another month away from here Α In front of me These frantic rest stop phone calls don't get answered anymore D Bm G Α The midwest feels like a hollow place that we filled with love But I, I wanted to know if I could please come home and So let me know Bm Industry [Refrão] And we're staring at the frozen ground in Goodwill suits D G Bm Two blackbirds on a highway sign are laughing at me at four in Silent as the pastor reads the eulogy the G Bm Α Well I, I wanted to see just a little bit of everything Morning D G They played the war drum out of time Let me be Bm Α [Refrão] So I'm not sure where I've been marching Bm D G D G Bm I want to be strong, but it's not easy anymore Two blackbirds on a highway sign are laughing at me at four in D A G the I'm hoping I'm wrong Morning I'm hoping I'm wrong D G They played the war drum out of time [Ponte] Bm Α So I'm not sure where I've been marching D Α G D I know how it feels to be at war with a world that never loved Bm G I want to be strong, but it's not easy anymore me D Α G D Α G I'm hoping I'm wrong I know how it feels to be at war with a world that never loved me [Segunda Parte] [Refrão] D It's sixteen hours straight to home from the heart of north G D Bm Two blackbirds on a highway sign are laughing at me at four in Missouri the And so I search through my great-grandpa's memoirs Mornina For the devil in my bloodstream D They played the war drum out of time D Bm Α Depression grabbed his throat and choked the life out of him So I'm not sure where I've been marching slowly Bm D I want to be strong, but it's not easy anymore

Acordes

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br