

The Wonder Years - The Ocean Grew Hands To Hold Me

tom:
               G
Intro: Am Bb Dm C
[Primeira Parte]
I stopped making deals with God
Right around when you left
          Dm
I said that I would start believing
If they made you well again
Guess they knew it was bullshit
           Bb
Never hold up my end
All the walls are stained in your nicotine
I could feel closing in [Segunda Parte]
I heard somebody cry
                Bb
I thought I was alone
I came to numb my lungs in the salt air
Let the breakers heal my bones
             Dm
I wish that the current would carry me home
I've been running for a decade now
And I think I'm ready to go
Oh, I'm ready to go
(F Bb Dm C)
[Terceira Parte]
I stopped making deals with God

When the light finally died
I'm gonna guard what's left of the good in us
When the ash blocks out the sky
And hold you with my left hand
          Bb
And ball up my right
And if the bastards come for both of us
I'll be right there by your side
I'm by your side
(F Bb Dm C)
[Refrão]
When I was in shambles
         Bb
When I got too weak
        F
The ocean grew hands to hold me
        G
When I was in shambles
        Bb
When I got too weak
The ocean grew hands to hold me
[Quarta Parte]
I stopped blaming God
When you said you were sick
          Dm
I learned to lean on the people who love me
      C
When the sutures start to split
             Dm
I trust in the current to pull you back in F
I miss everyone at once
But most of all, I miss the ocean
[Final] F Bb Dm C F
