Letra:
Here we are, at the end
Say goodbye to all of your friends
Here we go watching the sun go 'round
Sitting on a rooftop, making time stop
I never wanna come back down
I never wanna come back down

Refrão:
It's the end of the summer. It's the end of it all
Those days are gone, it's over now, we're moving on
It's the end of the summer, but we'll see it all again
So hold onto this moment till then,
It's the end of the summer

Here we stand, in the middle of an empty street
Tell me where you wanna go,
I'll tell you that's where I wanna be

Say goodbye to the warm breeze.
We could be almost anywhere.
I'll miss you, 'till the next time,
I hope I see you there.
I hope I see you back here

Refrão:
It's the end of the summer, it's the end of it all
Those days are gone, it's over now, we're moving on
It's the end of the summer, but we'll see it all again
So hold onto this moment till then,
It's the end of the summer
End of the summer

Ride's almost over, it's getting colder take on [sic] last look before it passes by Before it passes you by

It's the end of the summer It's the end of it all Those days are gone, it's over now, we're movin on
It's the end of the summer,
But we'll see it all again
So hold onto this moment 'till then
It's the end of the summer
