

Third Day - Blackbird

Tom: A

Verse 1

E Black bird, why you wearin' that frown?

Well, don't ya know ^A Jesus loves you and ^A me and the preacher on TV your puttin' down?

E Blackbird, how I love to hear your songs.

Well, I could spend all my time in the ^A shade of a ^A tree

And listen all day long.

A-G-E

Whoa yeah

A-G-E

I could listen

A-G-E

All day long

A-G-E

Chorus

Whoa but your ever hearing, never understanding, ^G ^D

Yea I see you're not percieving and your heart has grown ^E calloused

^G You're in a storm and lost your way, ^D

Won't you fly to heaven and be saved today. ^A

Verse 2

E Blackbird, now you've broken your wings. ^A

You try to fly high, but you know that ^A

You can't go anywhere, you can't do anything.

E Blackbird, who put you in your cage? ^A

Tell me was it God or was it you ^A

Or was it me, well I guess it don't matter anyway.

A G E

Whoa no no

A G E

It don't matter

A G E

No no anyway

A G E

Chorus

E A

Whoa yeah

A G E

You say you need a rememdy,

For the thorn in your pride

I think it's such a tragedy ^A

That you left Him behind! ^A ^G ^E
You say you light your candle

But your love light doesn't shine.

You say you talk to angels ^A

Well, I say that's such a lie. ^G ^E

A G E

Yes it is now

A G E

such a lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie. ^{A G E}

Chorus

E A

Whoa yeah

Blackbird ^{E A}
