

Third Eye Blind - Thanks A Lot

Tom: C w/ # Chorus x2 Date: Mon, 5 Jan 1998 22:02 From: Joakim Ax Ending This song has a kind of different intro/verse, and it¥s kinda hard to play. I found most of the songs on this album quite hard to figure Lyrics: out. verse1 It¥s all in your mind, she said the darkness and the light Standard tuning G Intro: Em Rm the clock it bleeds for you, but you never got the time in Intro: (w/dist) x2 i woke you up and i slit the throat of your confidence and we laughed in the night, and i felt all right. Verse1 verse2 Bm G All hands on deck boys \u2145cause this ship was made to sink Intro: (w/dist) x2 your swabber salutes younow, but i know what he¥s thinking i woke you up and i slit the throat of your confidence Verse2 (includes fill 1) x4 and we laughed in the night, and it felt all right. fill 1: Chorus Fm Thanks a lot Thanks a lot don¥t even know Chorus Thanks a lot D G G G Verse3 The clothes she wears mis-fit, and she\s nervous when she Verse3 x4 her zombie mom and dad live in a separate house of freaks Chorus x3 x1 i woke you up and i slit the throat of your confidence and we laughed in the night, and i felt all right. Solo(Verse) x4 Chorus Bm w/wah E Em Bridge G Em D Bm I¥m the one for you ¥cause i know all the dirty things you like to do i¥m the fear in your eyes G D Rm G i¥m the fire in your flies Fm i¥m the sound that buzzling around your head. Bridge Chorus Α If anyone can figure out the intro to Intro: x4 (w/bass-solo) îLosing a whole yearî please send it to me. Send comments or corrections to Chorus x4 Bridge2 Content-Type: text/plain; charset="us-ascii" Acordes

