

Thutmose - Memories

Tom: G

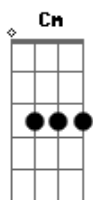

My memories, I
 My memories, I
 My memories came back in the form of someone else
 I know this feelin', yes I know this very well
 Why won't you love me now? Why won't you love me now?
 Why won't you love me now? (Why won't you love me now?)
 Memories
 It's gon' take some gettin' used to
 Memories
 Feel the pain when it hits you
 Memories
 Don't you ever let them fool you
 Don't you ever let them fool you
 'Cause I know that you know that it ain't true
 I learned the hard way about trust, about us, about us
 You sin and be on your high horse, we're not so stable anymore
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 My memories came back in the form of someone else
 I know this feelin', yes I know it very well
 Why won't you love me now? Why won't you love me now?

Why won't you love me now? Why won't you love me now?
 My memories, I (Ahh)
 My memories, why won't you love me now? (Ahh)
 Stepped over me like a sidewalk
 That's your loss, your loss
 You self-destruct and I watch, I watch, I watch
 Memories
 Don't let 'em fool you, baby
 Memories
 Don't you ever let them fool you
 'Cause I know that you know that it ain't true
 Lock it up, lock it up, I can't deal with ya
 Lock it up, lock it up, take your things witcha
 I finally had enough
 Out to the ride you go
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 What's left if I give you my all?
 Give you my all, give you my all
 My memories came back in the form of someone else
 I know this feelin', yes I know it very well
 Why won't you love me now? Why won't you love me now?
 Why won't you love me now? Why won't you love me now? (Ahh)
 Why won't you love me now? Why won't you love me now? (Ahh)
