

Tim Hanauer - December Days

This is love now, crazy love now
Give my heart out, still running round
December days are, fade away love
All my angels, it's time we made up
For your love
For your love
For your love
For your love
I could not give enough
Maybe I had my doubt
Maybe I needed out
Maybe I missed a step
Maybe I had my chance
Maybe I couldn't cry on cue
But I still needed you
Come to me now, its time to break down
In the morning, we will wake up
December days are, too soon to count on
When you fade in, you start to fade out
For your love
For your love
For your love

For your love
I could not give enough
Maybe I had my doubt
Maybe I needed out
Maybe I missed a step
Maybe I had my chance
Maybe I couldn't cry on cue
But I still needed you
Decembers come, try to break love
But you and I know, we wont give up
Decembers break, but that's what love makes
You and I share, a love turned safe
Maybe I had my doubt
Maybe I needed out
Maybe I missed a step
Maybe I had my chance
Maybe I couldnt cry on cue
Maybe I had my doubt
Maybe I needed out
Maybe I missed a step
Maybe I had my chance
Maybe I couldn't cry on cue
But I still needed you
This is love now, crazy love now
