I just be slighter than the whispers in the room

D
And them critics just assume you will never get do

Bm
All the things you really love, such a pessimistic view

Well let me tell you like mama told me

Everything comes back, its never always gon be

So mama never home, and papa never sober

You gotta keep climbin, the top is never closer

The truth is like a fight thatll take you to the white

And tomorrow gets brighter is you make it through the night, right?

You got it, they can never take it
They just gonna hate it cus they could never make it
Better days are coming in this thing called life
When rain go away a rainbow will say

Its alright

I dont wanna be okay, I just need to hear you say

Gbm
Its alright

When nothing really goes your way, tomorrow is a brand new day
Its alright

D Bm
Let me help you ease your mind, Imma make you realize

G D
That tonights your night

G
So baby lets go for it all

Why? You can find a smile
We done made it to the sky, we aint never comin down
Remember all the nights you was wishin on a star
I told you if you fight itll get you from them all
See? You just gotta say
And I will bring you blue skies Ill make all your fake friends go away

All they do is throw shade
Its time to get the sunshine back and watch all these gray clouds blow away

Okay you got it, they could never stop it
They just gonna hate it cuz they could never top it

And even if you block it theres gotta be a way out
If our work pay off theres gotta be a pay out

Stay on start of bizzoc, stack your own brizzocks
Into a building when you was feeling light

Giving up you never did
So I just came to let you know that if you never hit

Its alright
I dont wanna be okay, I just need to hear you say

Its alright
When nothing really goes your way, tomorrow is a brand new day

Its alright
Let me help you ease your mind, Imma make you realize

That tonights your night

Bm
So baby lets go for it all

A G
Keep your eyes to the skies

A Bm
And baby, well go for it all

A G
Dont ask why, thats just right
So baby, lets go for it all

I dont wanna be okay, I just need to hear you say
Its alright

When nothing really goes your way, tomorrow is a brand new day
Its alright

Let me help you ease your mind, Imma make you realize
That tonights your night

So baby lets go for it all
