

Tom Waits - Blue Valentines

Tom: C

From:

the album 'Blue Valentine' (actually one of the songs that hooked me

It is note-for-note for the intro and the first verse (first 80 seconds of the song on the album). Then there are some slight variations I didn't want to tab.

As the rhythm of this song is not very regular, I didn't try to match the words on the notes(I think it wouldn't make sense with such a song). Though, the first note of each 'measure' should be played together with the word that is just below it.

The complete lyrics are included in the album so I didn't write them all.

(long slide)

1st Verse

She sends me...

blue valen-tines
a-way from phila-delphia
to mark the anni-versary

of someone that I used to be and it feels like there's a warrant out of my arrest, got me checkin' in my rear view-mirror and i'm always on the run

that's why I changed my name and I
