

Tommy Prine - Ships In The Harbor

tom:

Intro: D G
D G
Bm G D

[Primeira Parte]

G D
It must be the morning again
G
The sun through the window
D A
Felt good on my skin
Bm G
So it must be leaving soon
D
As it should

[Segunda Parte]

G D
I saw the bluebird again
G
She pointed it out
D A
In the yard on our fence
Bm G
So it must be leaving soon
D
As it should

[Refrão]

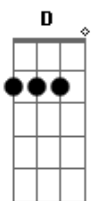

G
When I'm standing by water
A
It's harder and harder
Bm
It's why I get sad when there's
G
Ships in the harbor
D A
Cause they must be leaving soon
D
As they should

[Ponte] D G D

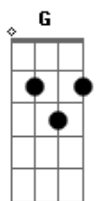

[Terceira Parte]

G D
And I got to see an old friend
G
We laughed and stayed up
D A
Til it came to an end
Bm G
Cause he must be leaving soon
D

As he should

[Quarta Parte]

G D
I tend to get lost in the stars
G
I waste every night wondering
D A
Where we all are
Bm G
And how we must be leaving soon
D
As we should

[Refrão]

G
When I'm standing by water
A
It's harder and harder
Bm
It's why I get sad when there's
G
Ships in the harbor
D A
Cause they must be leaving soon
D
As they should

[Ponte] D G

[Quinta Parte]

G D
Takes time to know when you're wrong
G
It takes even longer
D A
To put it all in a song
Bm G
And I wish it was easy too
D
Like he did

[Sexta Parte]

G A
When I'm by peaceful waters, it's harder and harder
Bm
I'd do anything just
A Bm
To talk to my father
Bm A
But I guess he was leaving soon
Bm
As we do
Bm G
And yeah, I guess he was passing through
D
And I am too
