Everyone's talkin' 'bout sex

Everyone's talkin' 'bout ex
          A
Like no one really wants to find a genuine connect
      G
Before?they even look at you, they move on to the next
      Bm          A
And I know that they say
              Bm
"Don't you worry," I'm the one
                                A
Then the very next day, they said they're done

And I don't want to listen to the shit you've spun

[Pré-Refrão]

Bm
Walk into a party, feelin' out of place
Everyone's too cool, everyone's too fake
              G
I try to start a conversation but I can't seem to relate

Yo, I'm about to get an Uber

And I don't really care if you're king

And I don't really care for gold things
You'll be pointing at some girls and saying,
"Yeah, we had a fling"
          G
But you're not fooling me

You're just a puppet on a string
          Bm
Just a puppet on a string, oh
                          Bm
And they say, "don't you worry, I'm the one"
