

Tori Kelly - High Water

tom:
 Broken-hearted tears, forever kind of rain
 Alone with all my fears, can't escape the pain
 Tired of holdin' on, I'm runnin' out of faith
 Lord, I try, I try, try, I try
 But I know

Something is comin' in the mornin'
 If I can make it through the night
 Whatever comes, hell or high water
 I know, I know what's on the other side
 (Ooh, si-si-si-si-side, ooh, si-si-si-si-side)

I know what's on the other side, mm
 (Ooh, si-si-si-si-side, other side)

Kayla called my phone, said he passed away
 Hard to help a friend when you don't know what to say
 All the questions and she still chose to pray
 So I'll try, I'll try, try, I'll try

'Cause I know

Something is comin' in the mornin'
 If I can make it through the night
 Whatever comes, hell or high water
 I know, I know what's on the other side
 (Ooh, si-si-si-si-side, ooh, si-si-si-si-side)

I know what's on the other side, mm
 (Ooh, si-si-si-si-side, other side)
 Mm-hmm, mm-hmm

Oh-oh, oh-oh

Something is comin' in the mornin'
 If I can make it through the night
 Whatever comes, hell or high water
 I know, I know what's on the other side
 (Ooh, si-si-si-si-side, ooh, si-si-si-si-side)

I know what's on the other side, mm
 (Ooh, si-si-si-si-side, other side)
