

Tori Kelly - Something Beautiful

Tom: B

(forma dos acordes no tom de G)
Capostrate na 4ª casa

Beautiful
You are stronger than you know
Oh, you're something beautiful

Em B G
Know you're hurting and you feel like all is lost
Heart is burning from the love that's been cut off
But day light's coming and time for you is all I got
And I promise you'll get through this
You can do this

Am D Em7
Because all that you need
Is a little room to breathe

Em D C G
Breathe in and let it go, oh
Your tears are not for nothing
Let them fall off
In every tear drop there is something beautiful
You are stronger than you know, oh
Oh you're something beautiful

Em B G
Fighting shadows, in a game that you can't win
Losing battles in a war under your skin
It's just a blessing in disguise
Without darkness, there is no light
Just hold on a little longer
And I promise you'll get through this

Am D Em7
Because all that you need
Is a little room to breathe
Breathe in and let it go, oh

Your tears are not for nothing
Let them fall off
In every tear drop there is something beautiful
You are stronger than you know, oh
Oh you're something beautiful

Am D Em7
Can't feel the love without the pain
The sun wouldn't matter without the rain
You're not required to carry the weight
So let it go, here's my hand to hold
At the end of it all, there's a smile for you waiting
So

D C G
Breathe in and let it go, oh
Your tears are not for nothing
Let them fall off
In every tear drop there is something beautiful
You are stronger than you know, oh
Oh you're something beautiful

C G D Em
Let it go, let it go, let it all go
(You're something beautiful)
(You're something beautiful)
Du du du Go, let it go, let it all go
(You're something beautiful)

(You're something beautiful)
Beautiful
(You're something beautiful)

(You're something beautiful)
You are stronger than you know
(You're something beautiful)
(You're something beautiful)
You're something beautiful
