

Tori Kelly - Something Beautiful

Tom: B

(forma dos acordes no tom de G)
Capostrate na 4ª casa

Beautiful
You are stronger than you know
Oh, you're something beautiful

Em Know you're hurting and you feel like all is lost
Heart is burning from the love that's been cut off
But day light's coming and time for you is all I got
And I promise you'll get through this
You can do this

Am D Em
Because all that you need
Is a little room to breathe

Em D C G
Breathe in and let it go, oh
Your tears are not for nothing
Let them fall off

D Em D C G D
In every tear drop there is something beautiful
Em D C G D
You are stronger than you know, oh
Oh you're something beautiful

Em B G
Fighting shadows, in a game that you can't win
Losing battles in a war under your skin
It's just a blessing in disguise
Without darkness, there is no light
Just hold on a little longer
A
And I promise you'll get through this

Am D Em
Because all that you need
Is a little room to breathe

Em D C G
Breathe in and let it go, oh
D Em

Your tears are not for nothing
D C G
Let them fall off
D Em D C G D
In every tear drop there is something beautiful
Em D C G D
You are stronger than you know, oh

Am D Em
Can't feel the love without the pain
The sun wouldn't matter without the rain
You're not required to carry the weight
Am D
So let it go, here's my hand to hold
Em
At the end of it all, there's a smile for you waiting
So

D C G
Breathe in and let it go, oh
D Em
Your tears are not for nothing
D C G
Let them fall off
D Em D C G D
In every tear drop there is something beautiful
Em D C G D
You are stronger than you know, oh
