

Travis - As You Are Solo

Tom: Bb

songs, despite being less well-known than all the singles.
 Hope this solo tab comes across right; it's my first tab! Any amendments, email me .
 Cheers

These notes can be played by turning the volume down slightly (ie by about 2 notches) quickly just before the string is plucked, and raising the volume quickly to full to give a 'fade in' effect. Or you could cheat and use a similar effect on an effects pedal!

very softly

Just before the louder solo, let the 10th fret of G and B ring as much as possible and your gain setting should be sufficient enough to give feedback as the channel is switched half way through the 2nd bar.
