Do you know the oldest song of earth?

Deeper than the sea...

Its been writen by the immortal charmed beigns

If you listen to a little piece of this pastplay

You could wander till the rest of your days

Come with me, may I'll show you some tunes of this dance

Leave away the old to become the new

Look out.. now your dreams can hunt you down even you wake

Float with me to forget the rest you used to concearn
