Em
Lord knows I got a type

G
And there's a few in here tonight

Em
Well, I've learned my lesson too many times

G
Blondes like you put me through hell and I need somethin' new

[Refrão]

Em
I need a brown-eyed, 5'5

G
North side of the Mason-Dixon line

G
Kind ain't climbed up in a four-wheel drive that's lifted

Em
Never been fishin', never been muddin'

G
Gotta be, gotta be one that don't remind me of you there beside me

Em G D C Am Em
I need to find me a brunette

[Segunda Parte]

Em
One that don't smoke when she drinks

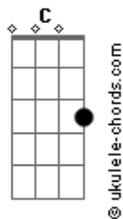

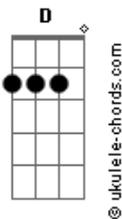

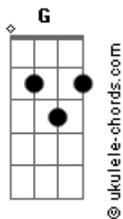

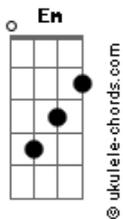

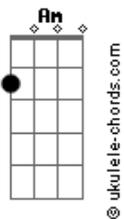

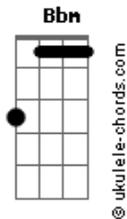

G
Or know them songs we used to sing

Em
I'd rather be lonely when it's time to leave

G
At 2 a.m., go 'head out with some girl that ain't your opposite

[Refrão]

[Ponte]

G
When it comes to that next head on my chest

Em
Won't be a bit of blonde on her head

G
You ruined that for me when you left

G
Since you left

[Refrão]
