

Twenty One Pilots - Fake You Out

```
I don't give these places fake my name explaining this
Intro: 2x: Gb Ebm B Db
Gb Db Ebm
                                                               And the wrists of my mind have the bleeding lines
I want to drive away
                                                               That remind me of all the times...
     Gb Db
In the night, headlights call my name
                                                               I have committed
               Ebm
I, I'll never be, be what you see inside
                                                               Dirty dirty crimes that are perfectly form-fitted
You say I'm not alone, but I am petrified
                                                               To what I've done and what I'm doing
                                                               I'm brewing and losing and spewing infusing
                       Ebm
You say that you are close, is close the closest star?
                                                               And believe me that's what all the kids are doing
You just feel twice as far, you just feel twice as far
                                                               What kids are doing are killing themselves
(Gb )
And I'll fall
                                                               They feel they have no control of their prisoner's cell
                                                               And if you're one of them then you're one of me
And I'll break
         Db
And I'll fake
                                                               And you would do almost anything just to feel free...
      Gb
All I wanna
                                                               Am I right? Of course I am
                                                               Convince me otherwise would take all night
         Fbm
And I'll fall down
                                                               Before you walk away, there's one more thing I want to say
         В
And I'll break down
        Db
                                                               Our brains are sick but that's okay
And I'll fake you out
                                                               Gb Ebm B Db (background harmony here until final stanza)
      Gb
All I wanna
Gb Ebm Gb B (x2)
                                                               And I'll fall
I'm so afraid
                                                               And I'll break
Of what you have to say
                                                               And I'll fake
Cause I am quiet now
                                                                     Gb
                                                               All I wanna
And silence gives you space
                                                               ( Gb Ebm B Db ) 2x
I, I'll never be, be what you see inside
                                                               (Gb )
                                                               All I wanna
You say I'm not alone, but I am petrified
                                                                              Fhm
                                                               Yeah, and I'll fall down
You say that you are close, is close the closest star?
                                                               And I'll break down
You just feel twice as far, you just feel twice as far
                                                                          Db
                                                               And I'll fake you out
And I'll fall
                                                                     Gb
                                                               All I wanna
And I'll break
                                                                               Fbm
                                                               Yeah, and I'll fall down
And I'll fake
      Gb
                                                               And I'll break down
All I wanna
                                                                         Dh
                                                               And I'll fake you out
And I'll fall down
                                                               All I wanna
          В
And I'll break down
                                                               I'm so afraid
         Db
And I'll fake you out
      Gb
                                                               Of what you have to say
All I wanna
                                                               Gb
                                                               Cause I am quiet now
                                                                                            (Gb )
It's the same game today as it always is
                                                               And silence gives you space
