                      Tom:

             [Primeira Parte]

F#          B
You know
                      Ebm
I've always been collected, calm and chill
      F#          B
And you know
                        Ebm
I never look for conflict for the thrill
              C#       B
But if I'm feeling
                       Ebm
Someone stepping towards you, can't describe
                    C#       B
Just what I'm feeling
