Am going to rest my head tonight
                                                                Saying I'll be home for next year, darling
So I won't promise that I'll speak to you today
                                                                 I'll be home for next year
But if I ever find
                                                                 And maybe sometime
Another place
                                                                 In a long time
A better time
                                                    Em
                                                                 You'll remember
For that moment I was never what I am
                                                                 What I had said there
                                                                 I said I'll be home for next year, darling
Take to me to where you are
                                                                 I'll be home for next year
What you've become Am
And what you will do when I am gone

Maybe someday
You'll be somewhere

Saying I'll be home for next year, darling
                                                                 You'll be somewhere
I'll be home for next year

In between the lines
                                                                 I'll be home for next year
Is the only place you'll find

What you're missing but you didn't know was there
                                                                 In a long time
So when I say goodbye
                                                                 You'll remember
You must do your best to try
                                                                 What I had said there
And forgive me this weakness
This weakness
                                                                 I'll be home for next year
'Cause I don't know what to say
                                                                 Maybe someday

Another day
Another excuse to be sent your way
                                                                 Talking to me
Another day
                                                                 As if you knew me
Another year
                                                                 Saying I'll be home for next year, darling
                                                                 I'll be home for next year
