New York and London
D Am
All I see now

Are distant drumlins
D Am
The roads I knew

Right there with you

And though

It might be too late
Em
What would you say? What would you say?

What would you do?

If I don't know
C Em
The wind will carry me
D Em G
So just hold tight

C Em
Over and over many setting suns
D Am
I have run, I have waited for the rain to come
C Em
When through that mist I see the shape of you
D Am
And I know, and I know that I'm in love with you
