Intro: D G G A D G G A

You are a woman

Moving in beauty

Dancing with grace

In circles around me

(Segue em posição normal das cifras)

The soul of a lion

But gentle as a lamb

You are the strong one

You hold me where I stand

You have your way

Of seeing my heart behind all my mistakes

You understand

That I am far from a perfect man

You love me You love me

For who I am

For Who. I. Am.

These are my hands

Here to protect you

And this is my day

Just thinking about you

These are my dreams

Built all around you

This is my life

I can't live without you

See, You have your way

Of seeing my heart behind all my mistakes

You understand

That I am far from a perfect man

You love me You love me

For who I am...

Not for who I might become

Or who you hope I'll be

You have your way

Of seeing my heart behind all my mistakes

You understand

That I am far from a perfect man

You love me You love me

For who I am

For Who. I. Am.

These are my hands

Here to protect you
