

U2 - Landlady

Tom: G

G
Roam, the phone is where I live til I get home G
And when the doorbell rings you tell me that I have a key Em
I ask you, how you know it's me C7M

G
The road, no road without a turn and if there was G
The road would be too long
What keeps us standing in this view Em
Is the view that we can be brand new C7M

G Em
The landlady takes me up in the air
I go, I go where I would not dare G
Landlady shows me the stars up there Em
I'm weightless, weightless when she is there G
And I'll never know, never know what starving poets meant Em
Cos' when I was broke, it was you that always paid the rent D

G
Space, her place is where I found my parking space G
And when I'm losing ground, you know she gives it back to me Em
She whispers "don't do, just be" C7M

G Em
The landlady takes me up in the air
I go, I go where I would not dare G
Landlady shows me the stars up there Em

C G
I'm weightless, weightless when she is there
And I'll never know, never know what starving poets meant Em
Cos' when I was broke, it was you that always paid the rent D
(Em7 C2 G D)

Em7
Every wave that broke me
C2
Every song that wrote me
G
Every dawn that woke me
D
Was to get me home to you, see

Em7
Every soul that left me
C2
Every heart that kept me
G
The strangers that protected me
D
To bring me back to you

Em7
Every magic potion
C2
Every false emotion
G
How unswerving our devotion
D
To the lies we know are almost true
Em7
Every sweet confusion
C2
Every grand illusion
G
I will win and call it losing
D
If the prize is not for you
