Intro: C Em7 Am
C Em7 Am
          Em7
I've been so lonely in this place
     Em7
Hiding my feelings and fears
          Ĕm7
Tired of this walls and this darkness
          Em7
The same routine, the same old faces
But I need to move on Lift my spirit, take this chance
Start to move forward
Time is running out fast
I must fight for my future
And leave this cave
                Em7
I would like to take you by the hand
             Em7
Smell your skin and kiss your lips
             Em7 Am
Would you remember my name?
            Em7
Would you remember the early days?
But I know that you are walking outside this place
Maybe enjoying light and dancing
with the stars
I need to strike fast,
it's time to l?ave this cave
( C Em7 Am )

I am running, running fast
  C Fm7
  They won't catch m? again
                                                                                                   Em7
  My head is burning, I can't feel my legs
 C Em7 Am
Not much further, I can see light
 And I dodged the traps
I did not fall in the same mistakes
I cried alone
 But they didn't listen my complaints
  I kept moving and I left the cave
                                                    C Em7 Am
C Em7 Am
 Now I can feel the Sun
 Days are longer than before
 My heart is growing
 Now I know what happiness feels like
  I fell in love with your smile
 Outside the cave
  ( C Em7 Am )
( C Em7 Am )
                                                                                                        Em7
 I opened my eyes and I know this place % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right)
                                                                                                 Em7 Am
  The same old walls and this darkness
                                  Em7 Am
 My imagination plays me tricks
                                                  Em7
 And I never left the cave
