                                                                'Cos love is the price I'll pay
                                                                [Ponte]
I've got you on \ensuremath{\mathsf{my}} \ensuremath{\mathsf{mind}}
          Em
Seems like 24 hours a day
                                                               No, I never felt this way before
Don't know how I caught this thing
                                                               Help please, can't take it anymore
         D D7
 Oooh, but it's happening
                                                               And I've never loved just anyone like you

When you're near, symptoms_clear
                                                                So tell me what you're gonna do
I think I've got a phobia fear
                                                                [Refrão]
I don't wanna fall in love
                                                                Because I'm lovesick
                   D D7
 But still I can't get enough
                                                               Caught this girl and she's gone right to my heart
[Ponte]
                                                               Doctor, don't you know
                                                                I can't sleep at night, can't do nothing right
No, I never felt this way before
                                                               Help me, I don't know how to stop
Help please, can't take it anymore
                                                                Because I'm lovesick
                      G
And I've never loved just anyone like you
                                                               Hurts so good, you know I don't want a cure
                      D
So tell me what you're gonna do
                                                                Baby, can't you see my heart is too far gone, yeah
[Refrão]
                                                               Hope the remedy works quick
Because I'm lovesick
                                                                So good, I'm lovesick
Caught this girl and she's gone right to my heart
                                                                Because I'm lovesick
Doctor, don't you know
                                                                Caught this girl and she's gone right to my heart
I can't sleep at night, can't do nothing right
                                                                Doctor, don't you know
Help me, I don't know how to stop
                                                                I can't sleep at night, can't do nothing right
Because I'm lovesick
                                                                Help me, I don't know how to stop
Hurts so good, you know I don't want a cure
                                                                Because I'm lovesick
Baby, can't you see my heart is too far gone, yeah
                                                                Hurts so good, you know I don't want a cure
Hope the remedy works quick
                                                                Baby, can't you see my heart is too far gone, yeah

So good, I'm lovesick
                                                                       Am
                                                                Hope the remedy works quick
Got a notion, a magic potion
                                                                So good, I'm lovesick
