

Uriah Heep - Lady In Black

tom: C

Intro: Am
She came to me one morning, one lonely Sunday morning Her long hair flowing, in the midwinter wind
I know not how she found me, for in darkness I was walking And destruction lay around me, from a fight I could not win

She asked me name my foe then,
I said the need within some men To fight and kill their brothers, without thought of love or God And I begged her give me horses, to trample down my enemies So eager was my passion, to devour this waste of life

But she wouldn't think of battle that, reduces men to animals
So easy to begin,
and yet impossible to end For she's the mother of our men, who counseled me so wisely then I feared to walk alone again, and asked if she would stay

Am
Oh, lady lend your hand outright, and let me rest here at your side Have faith and trust in peace she said, and filled my heart with life There is no strength in numbers, have no such misconception
But when you need me, be assured I won't be far away

Thus having spoke she turned away, and though I found no words to say I stood and watched until I saw, her black coat disappear
My labor is no easier, but now I know I'm not alone

I find new heart each time,
I think upon that windy day

And if one day she comes to you, drink deeply from her words so wise Take courage from her as your prize, and say hello from me
