Back here again (oh)
          Ab
Got me deep in my feelings
When I should be in your bed (oh)
          Eb
You and I go back to, like, oh-nine, it's like forever
And you were there my lonely nights, yeah, keeping me together
                                  Cm
So wouldn't it make sense if I was yours and you could call me
Your baby?
But we say we're just, say we're just
