Vance Joy - Red Eye

```
Tom: E
                                                               PRE Chorus
  Intro: E Gbm A (2x)
                                                                        F
                                                                                            Gbm
                                                                  I'm a dog lying down on a warm bit of pavement
verse 1
                                                                  Checking this collar you see what the name is
     Gbm
F
                     Α
                                                                                               Gbm
  She don't like small places
                                                                  Figured it's worth it, well I hope that you're right
                                   Ghm
          F
                                                                  You're falling asleep on the red eye tonight
 Give her highways and byways and don't get stuck in her head
                                                                Chorus
     Gbm
  And it's been so long
                                                                                                       Gbm
                                                                                                 F
                       Gbm
                                                                  And you know that you're looking well
  And I will read into everything you don't say Oh, in your Gbm
silent ways
                                                                  Won?t you come through my door asking how was your day
                                                                                                E Gbm
Pre-Chorus
                                                                 And you know that I'm still under
                                                                                                                    Gbm
                                                                 And I'm trusting my moves will it show me the way
                            Gbm
  I'm a dog lying down on a warm bit of pavement
                                                               verse 3?
  Checking this collar you see what the name is E
                                                                                                  Gbm
                                                                 Won?t you get out while you can
  Figured it's worth it, well I hope that you're right
                                                                                                                      Gbm
  You're falling asleep on the red eye tonight
                                                                 Won?t you cover your eyes if you're tired of seeing
                                                                                             E
                                                                                                 Gbm
Chorus
                                                                 Won?t you get out while you can
                                                                 And try saving yourself
                                 F
  Δ
                                       Gbm
  And you know that you're looking well
                                                        Gbm
                                                               E Gbm A
                                       F
  Won?t you come through my door asking how was your day
                                E Gbm
                                                                OUTRO?
 Well you know that I'm still under
                                       F
                                                    Gbm
                                                                                    F
                                                                                            Gbm
  And I'm trusting my moves will it show me the way
                                                                  Let?s talk in the morning
verse 2
                                                                 Oh baby it's late can we talk in the morning x3
     Gbm
  I'm glad that you're still here
                                                                 Oh baby it's late, Baby it's late
                                 Gbm
  Won?t you hold up a candle I'm stumbling in the dark
                                                               E Gbm A x4 E
     Gbm
  And when I needed hope
                        Gbm
                                                               NOTE Vance does a little mute strumming at the start of the E
  I remind myself that at least I got one thing right chord at:
                                                                "Won't you get out while you Mute strumming can"
  It?ll always be right
                                                               He also does a pull off on the B string on the second strum of the A chord
                                                                Every now and then.
```

Acordes

