

Vance Joy - Red Eye

Tom: E
                                                               PRE Chorus
  Intro: E Gbm A (2x)
                                                                                            Gbm
                                                                 I'm a dog lying down on a warm bit of pavement
verse 1
                                                                 Checking this collar you see what the name is
     Gbm
  She don't like small places
                                                                 Figured it's worth it, well I hope that you're right
                                                                 You're falling asleep on the red eye tonight
 Give her highways and byways and don't get stuck in her head
                                                                Chorus
  And it's been so long
                                                                 And you know that you're looking well
  And I will read into everything you don't say Oh, in your silent ways
                                                                 Won?t you come through my door asking how was your day
Pre-Chorus
                                                                 And you know that I'm still under
                                                                 And I'm trusting my moves will it show me the way
  I'm a dog lying down on a warm bit of pavement
                                                               verse 3?
  Checking this collar you see what the name is Won?t you get out while you can
  Figured it's worth it, well I hope that you're right
  You're falling asleep on the red eye tonight
                                                                 Won?t you cover your eyes if you're tired of seeing
Chorus
                                                                 Won?t you get out while you can
                                                                 And try saving yourself
  And you know that you're looking well
                                                               E Gbm A
  Won?t you come through my door asking how was your day
                                                                OUTRO?
 Well you know that I'm still under
  And I'm trusting my moves will it show me the way
                                                                 Let?s talk in the morning
verse 2
                                                                 Oh baby it's late can we talk in the morning x3
  I'm glad that you're still here
                                                                 Oh baby it's late, Baby it's late
  Won?t you hold up a candle I'm stumbling in the dark
                                                               E Gbm A x4 E
  And when I needed hope
                                                               NOTE Vance does a little mute strumming at the start of the E
  I remind myself that at least I got one thing right chord at:
                                                                "Won't you get out while you Mute strumming can"
  It?ll always be right
                                                               He also does a pull off on the B string on the second strum of the A chord
                                                                Every now and then.
